Kintbury Church is prettily situated in the very centre of the small village of the same name, and close to the banks of the canal. It is dedicated to St. Mary the Virgin, and was restored in 1883. It is an interesting building, with a good Norman doorway, the memorials including a brass to the memory of one John Gunter and his wife (1624). Kintbury, or Kentbury, is a contraction for Kennethbury.
